From a humble but monumental beginning as a School Of Dyeing & Printing in 1914, the Government Central Textile Institute (now Uttar Pradesh Textile Technology Institute) has grown into a big tree while ushering into its 105th anniversary. We are proud of its academic and professional achievements and at the same time it is a moment for real time quality celebration and a moment of introspection too. We have to make a strategize for paving the way for further goals and objectives. We are going to celebrate the golden moment and utilise the occasion for pooling the dreams and thoughts of our alumni, professors, students and experts from the industry to strategies our future plans. Our Old Boys Association has decided the event of celebration of the 105th anniversary of the Institute and Platinum Jubilee (75 years) of OBA which is to be on 1st December 2019. The success of the programme needs the whole hearted cooperation of you all and we are earnestly cherishing and looking for it.

Trajectory of the Institute for 105 Years

- * Established in 1914 as a School Of Dyeing & Printing
- * In the year 1937, it was renamed as a Government Central Textile Institute with merger of the textile technology department of the then Thomson Engineering College, Roorkee (now I.I.T. Roorkee). It excelled as a sole and premier textile institute of Northern India.
- * In the year 1959- 60, four year degree programmes were initiated in Textile Technology and Textile Chemistry affiliated with Agra University.
- * It was affiliated to Kanpur University when it came into being in the year 1966.
- * In the year 1976-77, a four year degree programme in Man Made Fibre Technology was also initiated in the Institute.
- * In the year 1985, the three year diploma courses were transferred to the Government Polytechnic, Kanpur and post graduate, doctoral programmes were started in the Institute.
- * In the year 2005, another four year degree programme in Textile Engineering was started with the help of World Bank under TEQIP (Technical Education Quality Improvement) scheme of Govt. of India.

Thus, our Institute made a remarkable journey of its development since the inception. Today, it is all equipped with the required paraphernalia for graduate, post graduate and doctoral programmes in the field of textiles.

About OBA:

A baby step in 1940 converted into a long remarkable journey. A handful of persons laid the foundation of Old Boys Association of Government Central Textile Institute in the year 1940 and got it registered on 7th September 1944 under the Society Act. Since then, our Old Boys Association is making a tireless journey of progress and achievements. Today we can be proud of our OBA. It always acted like a bridge in between the Institute and the Industry. OBA always stood by the Institute and played a crucial role. The placements of our pass out students is bolstered by the OBA like a foundation brick. OBA's contributions are multilateral and spontaneous in the interests of Institute, students and the industry.

OBA has always been working towards promoting brotherhood, sharing experience and disseminating technical knowledge within profession by periodically holding get-together, seminars and conferences etc. OBA has been actively holding family picnics, sports and various interaction programmes among the ex-students of the Institute.

Just to keep the trajectory of our development upwards, we require the fuel for the engine of the development. The required fuel is nothing but the funds.
